

Speculum of plastic

A speculum tube (from Latin speculum: “mirror”) is a medical instrument for gynaecological examinations. This tube is gently inserted into the vagina to provide a view into it and into the neck of the uterus. With the aid of a speculum tube, other instruments can be inserted through the cervix and into the uterus in a sterile environment.

Inventory number: 1554

Material: metal

Dimensions, in cm: 11x10x2

Date: before 2004